CHIPS AGAIN.

Extracts Jewelry from a Drawer in the I X L Store.

Everybody knows Chips alias R. Schrieber, the man who shot his own shadow in the Government building yard, and was later arrested on a charge of maliciously destroying a boat belonging to G. Beckley. On that charge he was acquitted, but he still maintains to this day that the shadow he shot at was that of another fellow.

Well, Chips entered S. Lederer's IXL store, corner Nunanu and King streets, on Saturday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock and asked for a fiftycent straw hat on credit. Lederer gave him the hat, and left a native boy in charge of the store, while he went to his evening repast. Chips hung around the place and, according to the native, was seen to go to the drawer and pull it out. There were some cards of jewelry in it which he extracted and put in his pocket. The native did not interfere but waited until Mr. Lederer returned at 6 o'clock, when he told him what had occurred. Chips was standing on the opposite side of the street at the time. He was called over and was searched, when the jewelry was found in his pocket, Captain Robert Parker being a witness to the search. The jewelry was valued at $10.

Chips was locked up and this morning was given a hearing in the District Court, when the evidence as reported was elicited. Defendant did not say anything in his defense. Sentence was suspended until Thursday morning. He is charged with larceny in the fourth degree.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

The Misses Nickelsen Entertain

Their Friends at Makaweli. A very pleasant party was given by the Misses Nickelsen at Makaweli on Saturday, March 4th, on the occasion of the house warming at their residence, Rocky Rest, Happy Val-ley. The residence was tastefully decorated with ferns and evergreens, the lanai being also illuminated with Chinese lanterns. Nothing was left undone by the young ladies, who personally superintended the decorations, to make the place inviting and comfortable. The invited guests arrived early and joined in heartily with the young hostesses to make the affair an enjoyable and successful one. Dancing was indulged in to music by Mr. Turner's Waimea band, and was kept up with zest till a late hour. The house warming was termed by all present a success in every way. The following guests were entertained by the Misses Nickelson: Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Center, Miss Mrs. Douglass, Master R. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Bailey. Miss Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Hofgaard, tered the room of a fellow-countryman on Liliha street yesterday. The Chinaman was a stranger to the inhabitant of the room, but nevertheless the intruder made himself at home. He picked up a pair of pants valued at $6 which was lying on a chair and stuck it under his blouse. The owner watched the man's movements and allowed him to go out into the road, when he called to another Chinaman who caught the thief as he was making tracks. The thief was searched and the pants stow them, under his blouse. He was escorted to the Station, where he was charged with larceny.

Young was tried in the District Court this morning. He made a statement in his own defense, not, however, denying the theft, and he was sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor.

AN INSURANCE DECISION.

Taken as a Beer-Drinker and Died of Delirium Tremens.

Men who carry life insurance will be interested in a decision rendered in the United States court here to day by Judge George M. Carpenter. The suit was brought by Thomas McHale, administrator of the estate of Patrick J. McHale, against the New York Equitable Life Assurance Company, to secure the value of a $5000 policy issued on March 3.

Mr. McHale died on March 2, 1891. When the policy was issued the agent of the con-pany propound ed to him the usual question regarding the use of intoxicating liquors. Mr. McHale said he had no habit of drinking, but took a glass of beer occasionally. The proof of death filed at the New York office stated that the man died of exhaustion.

The Coroner's report was to the effect that death was due to delirium tremens. The company refused to pay the policy on the ground that Mr. McHale's statement at the time of its issuance was untrue. The plaintiff claimed that the deceased was not an habitual drinker at the time the policy was issued, but the Judge would not allow evidence to show this to be presented.

He declared that the statement made to the company by Mr. Me-Hale was equivalent to a denial of the use of any intoxicants excepting beer. Hence he claimed that the defense had been guilty of false statements, and he directed the jury to bring in a verdict for the corporation. An appeal was taken. - Providence Special to New York Times.

SCRIVEN'S

Patent Elastic Seam Drawers!

We want to call the attention of our patrons to a novelty which, from the favor it has been received with, we believe has come to stay and become an indispensible article of gent's furnishing. A glance at the cut above will show at once the superiority of goods made in this manner over those heretofore in vogue. SCRIVEN'S PATENT ELASTIC Seam Drawers are provided with an improvement consisting of an Elastic Insertion at the inner and outer seams, which gives elasticity in movement and comfort in fit. The drawers are cut in figure outlines and afford the wearer all the advantages of knif goods, while retaining the superior comfort of woven fabric. The Patent Elastic Seam, which contains so Rubber, retains its springiness and wears longer than the other portion of the garment. It makes the drawers conform to the position of the wearer and avoids any strain, no matter what attitude the body assumes. It will also be found that these PATENT ELASTIC SEAM DRAWERS are equally well adapted to all greatest freedom and ease of motion. In the position as sumed in the cut, not the least tension is produced on the main portion of the goods, while the clastic seams allow the transformation of the figure as seen in the position, which would be impossible in others without producing great strain on the goods and friction upon the person.

We have now a complete stock of these goods in all sizes, and can recommend those made of the material known as "Jean" to be the coolest and best adapted for those persons who do not care to wear woolen fabries.

They say that there is "nothing new under the sun," but the fellow who said that was all wrong. He forgot "Gent's Furnishings," they're always making something new in that line.

The latest yet, we have just received samples of, from the manufacturers. It, consists of Gauze, Balbriggan, or Silk Under Garments with WOOL skillfully woven into the breast and back to protect the most vital parts of the body from cold or chill. To the many people who cannot wear all wool goods on account of the irritation sometimes felt, these goods will be a great boon, as, while they will have the advantage of wearing cotton fabric, the lungs and back will have a nice warm covering of wool. From the many sentiments of approval we have heard regarding these goods we believe them to be a good thing for our climate, and have placed our orders for a full stock, which will be on sale in about two months.

To any person desiring to see notified the samples which we have we will be pleased to show them.
